

8.00 - 8.30AM

Registration

Kapittelzaal - het Pand

8.30 - 9.30AM

Keynote speech: Anniek de Ruijter & Panel Discussion - The Politics of Health in the EU: the Role of Law

Panelists: Aurélie Mahalatchimy, Chargée de recherche CNRS; Giulia Bosi, Sant'Anna School of advanced studies, Pisa

De Refter - het Pand

9.30 - 10.30AM

Workshop: Health and Human Rights : Global and European Perspective (part 1)

Speakers: Brigit Toebes; Mette Hartlev; Henriette Sinding Aasen; Katharina O'Cathaoir

De Refter - het Pand

Session: Medical liability and complaint procedures (part 1)

Chair: Steven Lierman

Priorzaal - het Pand

- Liability for Healthcare - Associated Infections: between public health and patient safety - Mariya Sharkova, University of National and World Economy Sofia
- The role of automatic complaints in enhancing the quality of care - Paulien Walraet, Ghent University
- Financial penalties of the Patients' Rights Ombudsman for infringement of collective patients' rights - Karolina Wierzbicka, Lodz University

Session: Health Data : Quality and Governance (part 1)

Chair: Verena Stuhlinger

Zaal Vermeylen - het Pand

- Secondary use of health data in research: The complexities of EU data governance - Maria Christofidou, i~HD
- Data altruism in health research: putting the new mechanism under review - Teodora Lalova, Janos Meszaros, KU Leuven
- Hospital quality data: it is time for internal and external transparency? - Caroline Weltens, University Hospital of Leuven

Session: New Technologies in health care (part 1)

Chair: Athanasios Panagiotou

Oude infirmerie - het Pand

- Assessing the Relationship between Quality of Care in AI-Driven Healthcare Technologies and Algorithmic Gender Bias: A Need for Data Feminism - Lau Pin Lean, Brunel Law School London
- Compromise on HTA Regulation: facilitating or hindering development of high quality new health technologies - Tomislav Sokol, European Parliament
- Will the Artificial Intelligence Act guarantee better quality of care? - Stefaan Callens, KU Leuven

Workshop: The new regulation of assisted suicide in Austria with special regard to quality and safety at the intended end of a patient's life (part 1)

Speakers: Michael Ganner; Caroline Voithofer; Hubert Niedermayr; Thomas Pixner; Maria-Kristina Steiner; Liv Victoria Vickery

Jan Gillis - het Pand

10.30 - 11AM

Coffee Break & Poster Presentations

Kapittelzaal - het Pand

11 - 12.30 AM

Workshop: Health and Human Rights: Global and European Perspective (part 2)

Speakers: Brigit Toebes; Mette Hartlev; Henriette Sinding Aasen; Katharina Ó Cathaoir

De Refter - het Pand

Session: Medical liability and complaint procedures (part 2)

Chair: Steven Lierman

Priorzaal - het Pand

- Medical liability - A presentation of the "Scandinavian model" - Karl Harald Sovig, Bergen University
- Recent framework to implement open disclosure in Belgium - Steven Lierman, KU Leuven
- Medical liability in Latvian law - Anatoliy Lytvynenko, Lviv National University of Ivan Franko
- Public medical liability in Spain: empirical analysis of the characteristics of paid malpractice cases, 2008-2020 - Monica Hernandez Herrero, Murcia University

Session: Health Data: Quality and Governance (part 2)

Chair: Verena Stuhlinger

Zaal Vermeylen - het Pand

- The establishment of HERA, the extension of the ECDC mandate and data collection in the context of pandemic surveillance - Danaja Fabrice Povse, Vrije Universiteit Brussel
- The European Health Data Space (EHDS) and its implications on research with health data - Verena Stuhlinger, UMIT TIROL, The Tyrolean Private University
- Do we need a legal framework to improve the quality of health data? - Jens Declercq, i-HD
- Strain at a gnat and swallow a camel-Is the Swedish regulation on ethical review fit for purpose? - Lena Wahlberg, Lund University
- Preserving privacy of health-related data through federated learning. Why GDPR remains applicable and what it means - Griet Verhenneman, KU Leuven

Session: New Technologies in healthcare (part 2)

Chair: Athanasios Panagiotou

Oude infirmerie - het Pand

- The IGPrare project: ethical and legal issues raised by genetic information disclosure to family, an insight on the diversity of practices in Europe - Marion Mathieu; Marion Gottrau, Aix-Marseille University
- Building a Better Mobile App Marketplace: An Ethical and Legal Toolkit for App Mediated Genomics Research - Kyle McKibbin, Ghent University
- From Personalized Medicine to Patient-centered Drug Manufacture. Legal Questions and Challenges for "Drugs on Demand" - Claudia Seitz, Ghent University, Basel University, Bonn University
- AI as a Medical Device: Between the Medical Devices Framework and the AI Act - Anastasiya Kisevela, Vrije Universiteit Brussel

Workshop: The new regulation of assisted suicide in Austria with special regard to quality and safety at the intended end of a patient's life (part 2)

Speakers: Michael Ganner; Caroline Voithofer; Hubert Niedermayr; Thomas Pixner; Maria-Kristina Steiner; Liv Victoria Vickery

Jan Gillis - het Pand

12.30 - 1.30PM

Lunch

Kapittelzaal - het Pand

1.30 - 2.30PM

Keynote Speech: Markus Frischhut & Panel Discussion - Quality of care and new technologies – the role of values and ethics

Panelists: Vera Lucia Raposo, Coimbra University; Sofia Palmieri, Ghent University

De Refter -het Pand

2.30 - 3.30PM

Workshop: What does it take to create a European Health Data Space? Production, use and re-use of Electronic Health Records Data (part 1)

Speakers: Tugce Schmitt; Anne Koppenburger; Felix Gille; Vanja Pajic; Kimon Papadopoulos; Petronille Bogaert; Shona Cosgrove

De Refter - het Pand

Session: Ethical Questions in Health Law (part 1)

Chair: Thierry Vansweevelt

Priorzaal - het Pand

- The 20th birthday of the Belgian Law on Euthanasia: Celebration or concerns after the first euthanasia trial? - Sylvie Tack, Antwerp University, Ghent University
- Médecins sans frontières: Are foreign physicians allowed to euthanise their patients in Belgium? - Sien Loos, Antwerp University
- Standard of care in euthanasia: Some issues raised by the recent Belgian criminal court case before the Court of Assizes in Ghent - Kristof Van Assche, Antwerp University

Session: The Right to Quality of Care (part 1)

Chair: Wannes Buelens

Oude Infirmerie - het Pand

- Does Dutch disciplinary law improve the quality of healthcare? - Shosha Wiznitzer, Utrecht University
- Patients' right to information as a guarantee of the right to quality of care - Tomasz Sroka, Jagiellonian University
- The big Q: what is the required evidence of quality of healthcare under international human rights law? - Luciano Bottini Filho, Bristol University, Sheffield Hallam University

Workshop: Mind the gap: The EU-domestic interface and its implications for health lawyers (part 1)

Speakers: Anniek de Ruijter; Dominique Mollet; Hannah van Kolfschooten; Merel Spaander; Mary Guy

Zaal Vermeylen-het Pand

Session: (Re)newed techniques in health law (part 1)

Chair: Annagrazia Altavilla

Jan Gillis - het Pand

- Unproven methods in paediatric care: legal and ethical challenges - Santa Slokenberga, Uppsala University
- The new initiative of the Council of Europe to strengthening children's participation in their health - Annagrazia Altavilla

3.30 - 4PM

Coffee Break & Poster Presentations

Kapittelzaal - het Pand

4 - 5.30 PM

Workshop: What does it take to create a European Health Data Space? Production, use and re-use of Electronic Health Records Data (part 2)

Speakers: Tugce Schmitt; Anne Koppenburger; Felix Gille; Vanja Pajic'; Kimon Papadopoulos; Petronille Bogaert; Shona Cosgrove

De Refter - het Pand

Session: Ethical Questions in Health Law (part 2)

Chair: Thierry Vansweevelt

Priorzaal - het Pand

- Late abortion: do Dutch regulations add to a responsible practice? - Corrette Ploem, Amsterdam University Medical Centers
- Quality of Abortion Provision After 12 Weeks: Insights of Belgian Hospital Gynaecologists - Fien De Meyer, Antwerp University
- Can the law help to guarantee right to necessary care for adult patients incapable of self - determination in somatic health care? A Finnish perspective - Merja Turunen, Lapland University
- Difficult decisions in contemporary healthcare law - Dobrochna Bach-Golecka, Warsaw University

Session: The Right to Quality of Care (part 2)

Chair: Wannes Buelens

Óude Infirmierie - het Pand

- Evaluating the effect of a mandatory information system on the quality of youth care in the Netherlands - Vivianne Dorenberg, Amsterdam University Medical Centers
- A Challenge of Diversity in Healthcare: On the Possibility and Necessity of Providing "Concordant Care" to Patients to Improve Quality of Care - Naoual El Yattouti, Antwerp University

- The Role of Provisional measures adopted by the Inter-American Court of Human Rights in Protecting at-risk Detainees in Latin America - Clara Burbano-Herrera, Ghent University
- Health and Safety Crimes and Quality Improvement - Oliver Quick, Bristol University

Workshop: Mind the gap: The EU domestic interface and its implications for health lawyers (part 2)

Speakers: Anniek de Ruijter; Dominique Mollet; Hannah van Kolfschooten; Merel Spaander; Mary Guy

Zaal Vermeylen - het Pand

Session: (Re)newed techniques in health law (part 2)

Chair: Annagrazia Altavilla

Jan Gillis - het Pand

- Ethical and Legal Considerations in Uterus Transplantation - Magdalena Flatscher Thoni, UMIT TIROL, The Tyrolean Private University
- Knowledge and Attitudes about the legal requirements of post-mortem organ donation – empirical findings from Austria – Magdalena Flatscher-Thoni; Gabriele Werner-Felmayer, UMIT TIROL, The Tyrolean Private University, Innsbruck Medical University
- Evaluation of the necessity-based model and consent-based model for the processing of bio samples and health data in clinical biobanks - Noemi Condit, Bologna University
- Are the French ethical support cells a good model for supporting public health decisions in the face of health crises? - Laetitia Marcucci, Rennes 1 University

5.30 - 6.30PM

General Assembly - EAHL

De Refter - het Pand

7.30 - 9.30PM

Conference Dinner

Parnassus

